Presentation: 0900-1000. "Volunteers: Where the Rubber Meets the Road"

Bottom line up-front: Volunteers are where the rubber meets the road. You are the National Guard's eyes, ears and voice within our community. Listen-in on the many opportunities where you can best utilize your skills and assets, how to stay connected within the military community and network with other National Guard volunteers.

Presentation: 1000-1100. "Preparing for Disasters, Deployments & Difficulties"

Being a military family member is far from easy. Even though your service member signed up for this part time gig, you are realizing military service is extending past your service member and over to you. Listen in on how to prepare and educate yourself, whether it's the unpredictable North Dakota weather, an upcoming deployment, or one of life's difficulties.
